

Program Specific Outcomes (PSOs)

At the end of the program the student is able to:

1. Analyse, design, implement and test innovative application software systems to meet the specified requirements.
2. Understand and use systems software packages.
3. Understand the organization and architecture of digital computers, embedded systems and computer networks.